- 1 Memoirs of J. Eben Taylor (father of Harold Taylor) born Kettering 1850 - went to Fuller Baptist Sunday School. Father worked for Ellis & Everard at Isham Station. Moved to Burton Latimer & went to Endowed School (describes masters and teaching). Started shoe trade at age 11. Apprenticed to Wm. Seal as shoemaker but failed to learn much. Transferred to Mr. Sharp. Obtained work at Woodford ironstone works, walking 4 miles there & 4 miles back. Had to marry Hannah Treadgold who died after birth of child. Did furnace work at nights. Stayed away from work at Burton Feast and was sacked. Got work at a new pit at Woodford. Uncomfortable lodgings. Got better lodgings at Mrs. Owen's, member of the Baptist Chapel. Went to prayer meetings and cottage meetings. Married Naomi Daniels after she had nursed him through an illness. Started stitching shoes with brother & brother-in-law and sang songs & played jokes on visitors. Patching shoes and soling them. Memories of his youth from age 11 - chapel choir and more jokes - learned to play instruments and to dance. Playing music at public houses and outside houses at Christmas time. Played concertina solo & comic singing. At last God inspired him to stop drinking & join a Bible Class. Started collecting garden rents & pew rents. Describes chapel ministers. His children and the efficacy of Potters Asthma Powder.
Pencil manuscript, written in November 1908.

- 74 Letter, E. Mieville, Secy. at Buckingham Palace to H. Taylor, 11.3.1943
Their Majesties enjoyed their visit to the Kettering factory. Would like the gift of children's garments to go to the Secy. of Edinburgh Children's Holiday Fund. Notes that a permit & coupons are being obtained.
- 75 Confidential letter, Hugh Dalton at Board of Trade, London to H. Taylor, 31.3.1943 glad to have his opinion on the effect of changes in clothing restrictions on wholesale clothiers. Feels that the present regulations should be maintained and is disinclined to make any concessions.
- 76 Letter, Hugh Dalton as above to H. Taylor, 15.9.1943
thanks for the way H.T. treated the subject at the quarterly meeting of the K.C. Socy Ltd. Hopes H.T. will continue to keep in touch on matters affecting the clothing trade.
In envelope
- 77 Letter, T.D. Fay (Private Secy.) at Board of Trade to Harold Taylor, 9.2.1945
thanks for letter to Mr. Dalton re removal of remaining austerity restrictions on civilian clothing. Is sure the President will be interested.
- 78 Letter, F.H. Shepherd at Board of Trade to Harold Taylor, 13.3.1945
thanks for H. T's observations as above. The President feels that cloth and labour are still too scarce for de-restriction. Taylor's fear that de-restriction would lead to demands for extreme or wasteful styles is met by coupons & price controls.
