RECORDS
of the
CAERNARVONSHIRE CONSTABULARY

The Caernarvonshire Constabulary was established in 1857 following the Counties Police Act, 1856. After 1888 the Constabulary was administered by the Standing Joint Committee of Quarter Sessions and County Council until 1950 when it was amalgamated with the Gwynedd Constabulary.

Explanatory Notes:

The County Constabulary as established in 1857 contained 5 Divisions (or Districts) with their respective headquarters at Caernarfon, Bangor, Conwy, Porthmadog and Nefyn. Their official reference numbers as used on many of the records were as follows:

A = Caernarfon

B = Bangor

C = Conwy

D = Nefyn

E = Porthmadog

Pwllheli remained independent of the Caernarvonshire Constabulary until August 1879.

In 1892 the police divisions of Pwllheli and Porthmadog were amalgamated to form one division.

In the early days of the Constabulary the terms Division and District were used indiscriminately and therefore in compiling this catalogue it has not always been possible to distinguish between the two.

Police Reports and Charge Sheets

1501 - 1534

1501. 1886 Jan. 13 REPORT: H. L. Williams, Superintendent, Conway, to Major Clayton, Chief Constable [Carnarvon], with a detailed account of the circumstances surrounding the death of Sarah Anne Lawn at Malvern House, Llandudno.
1502. 1891 Aug. 26 REPORT: P. C. John Jones, Glasynfryn, to Inspector Roberts, Bangor, concerning the dangerous condition of the roadway alongside Glasinfryn Lake in pa. Llandegai. The roadway is too narrow for carts to pass each other without risk of accident especially as there is nothing to prevent them from falling into the water.
1503. 1892 Aug. 26 REPORT: P. C. O. Thomas, Penygroes, to C. Davies, Deputy Chief Constable, concerning the case of two boys, now at Barnes Home, and the payments made by their father David Jones.
1504. 1892 Sept. 26 REPORT: P. C. Thomas Griffiths, Guild Hall, Carnarvon, to C. Davies, Deputy Chief Constable, reporting how he recovered a bag containing 17 rabbits, but failed to catch the thief. However, the culprit was identified as Jack Pritchard late of Bangor.
1506. 1892 Oct. 27 REPORT: P. C. W. Jones, Ebenezer, to C. Davies, Deputy Chief Constable, Carnarvon, concerning cases of Ellin Lewis, W. J. Parry and Ty Mawr farm.

1507.        1892        Oct. 30        REPORT: P. C. Thomas Griffiths, Guild Hall, Carnarvon to C. Davies, Deputy Chief Constable, concerning the theft of half a sovereign, property of Mrs. Hanah Hughes, by Ann Rowlands, a lodger with Mrs. Hughes.
- Appended:
- NOTE (1 Nov. 1892) from Sgt. John Pritchard, saying that the accused - Ann Rowlands - had been convicted two or three times before, for similar crimes at Conway and Abergele.
1508.        1892        Nov. 1        REPORT: P. C. David Roberts, Guild Hall, Carnarvon to Mr. C. Davies, Deputy Chief Constable, concerning a report that stones were being thrown at children, as they came out of school. He went to the National School in plain clothes and witnessed a boy named Evan David Ellis of 1, William Street throwing a stone.
- Appended:
- NOTE made by C. Davies that the boy was to be summonsed.
1509.        1892        Nov. 2        REPORT: P. C. Henry Owen, Guild Hall, Carnarvon to C. Davies, Deputy Chief Constable, concerning the apprehension of two boys for throwing mud at the windows of houses in St. Davids Road. Two boys, Hugh Richards aged 11 son of Richards the broker of St. Davids Road and John Griffiths aged 13 the son of a sailor from Twthill were caught red-handed by P. C. Owen.
1510.        1892        Nov. 9        REPORT: P. C. Henry Owen, Guild Hall, Carnarvon, to C. Davies, Deputy Chief Constable, concerning Ellen Edwards, who was found begging in Pool Street.

1511. 1892 Nov. 22 REPORT: P. C. John Jones, Llanllyfni, to C. Davies, Deputy Chief Constable, reporting complaints of how a hawker named Thomas Jones, Mount Pleasant, Conway, had tried to steal from a house at Nazareth, pa. Clynnog, when only the children were present.
1512. 1893 Aug. 7 REPORT: P. C. Thomas Griffiths, Bontnewydd, to C. Davies, Deputy Chief Constable, Carnarvon, reporting the theft of various tools from Robert Jones, Tyddyn du Farm, Bontnewydd.
1513. ?1893 Aug. 7 REPORT: P. C. Thomas Griffith, Bontnewydd, to C. Davies, Deputy Chief Constable, Carnarvon, concerning the theft of a watch from Griffith Parry, Penyfridd, Rhoscadfan, either in Carnarvon or on the way home to Rhoscadfan.
1514. 1893 Aug. 12 REPORT: P. C. William Evans, Guild Hall, [Carnarvon] to C. Davies, Deputy Chief Constable, Carnarvon re an accident which occurred near Waterloo Port when a man was found bleeding from a head wound having been knocked down by a four wheeled vehicle.
1515. 1894 April 12 REPORT: P. C. Henry Harris, Police Station, Penygroes to C. Davies, Deputy Chief Constable, concerning some rumours circulating around Talysarn that a Mrs. Roberts, 6 Halfway Terrace, had given birth to a child seven months ago, and that her husband had found the body in the chimney.
1516. 1894 May 26 REPORT: P. C. W. Williams, Police Station, Carnarvon to C. Davies, Deputy Chief Constable, Caernarvon, concerning the recovery of a pair of rollocks which had been reported stolen from a boat belonging to Mr. King, North Road.
