[The early history of Reading Wheelers Cycling Club is obscure. It had fallen into abeyance after an earlier period of activity when it was re-started in 1934, under the name Reading Wheelers Cycling Club 1934. The club ceased to exist in 1940, due to many members being called up for military service or other war work.

The club started up again in 1940, as Reading Wheelers Cycling Club. In 1974 it merged with the Bon Amis Cycling Club to form Reading Cycling Club.]
