

MS 2101

[Academic papers of Humphrey T Pledge, keeper of Science Library at Science Museum, chiefly re history of science]

Address: Science Library, Science Museum

- /1 - After relativity and quanta
9p ts.
- /2 - A new engine. Coal and iron may benefit. [Erren engine]
3p ts.

Address: 10 Minera Mews, South Eaton Place, London SW1

- /3 - Lives of the Scientists. Benjamin Thompson, Count Rumford
8p ts.
- /4 - The Lives of the Scientists. Baron von Humboldt
6p ts.
- /5 - Sidelights on Science. Intellectual co-operation
7p ts.
- /6 - Side lights on Science. Type of scientists in history
7p ts.

Address: Lancaster Lodge, Hampton Court

- /7 1931 Jul The History of Science. An implement of research. Second International Congress of the History of Science and Technology, Jun 29th-July 4th. [With copy letter, Jul 4 to editor of Discovery/H T Pledge] 15p ts. + 1p ts.
- /8 1931 Histories of Science. [With postcard, Aug 31, p.p. editor of Science Progress, rejecting article]
17p ts. + card + slip

Address: Clare House, Tonbridge

- /9 - Provisional Chart of Chapters [for] "Historical Introduction to Atomic Science". [With 'Provisional synopsis of chapters' and chapters I, II and X]
1 leaf ms. + 73p ts.

Address: 10 Crescent Place, Egerton Gardens, London SW3

/10 1933 Mar The Erren engine. [With note bearing Pledge's request to S M Director (Col. Sir Henry Lyons) for permission to have paper published in The Power Engineer, and Lyons's positive reply] 7p ts. + 1p ms.

/11 - Another gasoline substitute? by Technos 7p ts.

/12 - Hope for coal and iron, by Technos 6p ts.

/13 - The question of numbers 21p ts.

No address

/14 - [Draft lecture] Genius & Tradition in the History of Science 24p ms.

Inv.no. 1998-172