INTRODUCTION

A. & R. Brown Ltd. of 18-22 Porter Street, Liverpool, specialised in carrying out coppersmithing and brass founding for a wide range of industrial plant including sugar refining and industrial equipment, as well as marine work. The company merged with C. & H. Crichton Ltd., ship repairers and engineers in the early 1960s and this firm joined with Sandhills Engineering to form C.B.S. Engineering in 1972. This collection was deposited at the Maritime Archives and Library on 24 January 1977. The collection is accessible to any reader within the Maritime Archives and Library Searchroom.
