LARRINAGA STEAMSHIP CO., LTD.

INTRODUCTION

This business was established at Liverpool in 1862 by three Basques to run sailing ships under the Spanish flag. In 1870 a regular line of cargo and passenger steamers was started between Liverpool and the Philippines, followed by a line between Liverpool and Cuba. In 1896 a regular service was established between Galveston and Manchester. The company began to register its ships in Liverpool after the Spanish-American War. Much of its business in the twentieth century was tramping in the grain trade and by the 1960s it was the last ocean tramp shipping company in Liverpool.

The collection comprises letters in Spanish, ship plans, copies of ship registration certificates and photographs.

The collection is accessible to any reader within the Maritime Archives & Library Searchroom, Merseyside Maritime Museum.
