Administrative history

Barry was incorporated as a Municipal Borough by royal charter in September 1939. The borough was the successor to Barry and Cadoxton Local Board (1888 – 1894) and Barry Urban District Council (1894 – 1939).

The area covered by the borough comprised the parishes of Barry, Cadoxton-juxta-Barry, Merthyr Dyfan and parts of Penmark, Porthkerry and Sully.

In 1974 it was abolished and its functions taken over by the Vale of Glamorgan District Council and South Glamorgan County Council.
