Administrative/biographical history

The Cardiff Royal Infirmary League of Friends, described in earlier minutes as Friends of Cardiff Royal Infirmary, was formulated in October 1975 with the purpose of relieving patients and former patients of the Cardiff Royal Infirmary who were sick, convalescent, handicapped, infirm or in need of financial assistance and with the general aim of supporting the charitable work of the hospital. The League was active in the implementation of these functions and took on a wide range of fund raising activities, recruitment of volunteers, and general education of the public community in the work of both the hospital and of the League.
