Administrative/Biographical history

Baptist services began at Ystradfechan farm until 1870 when a schoolroom was built to accommodate worshippers under the supervision of the ministers of Bethany, at Treherbert, and Noddfa, at Treorci. The first chapel was constructed in 1874. The establishment of Bethel Baptist Church, Cwm-parc, in 1904 drew some members away from Horeb although the two chapels initially shared minister. The church was extended in 1905-6. See A History of the Church, compiled by W. D. Jones (Secretary) for the jubilee services (DBAP6/7).
