Family and EstateEarls Talbot of Hensol Castle

In 1709 Charles Talbot married Cecil, daughter and heiress of Charles Mathews of Castell y Mynach, Glamorgan, and the grand-daughter of David Jenkins of Hensol. It was through this marriage that lands in Glamorgan came to this branch of the Talbot family. In 1734 Charles Talbot was made Baron Talbot of Hensol; his son William was created Earl Talbot in 1761.

Henry John, the 3rd Earl Talbot, inherited the earldom of Shrewsbury, (becoming the 18th Earl), being a relative of the 17th Earl who died, unmarried in 1856.
