Administrative/biographical history

Dinas Powis Women's Institute was formed in February 1939 following a meeting with the Welsh organizer of the National Federation of Women's Institutes and the Glamorgan County Executive Chairman under the initial presidency of Mrs R.H. Seel. The institute was an active body engaged in a variety of local and national social and charitable affairs which gradually widened to include many broader national and international themes, particularly in regard to world poverty and environmental and political change. The institute changed its name to Dinas Powys Women's Institute in 1991 to match the adoption by the Community Council of standard Welsh spelling.
