Administrative/Biographical history

Roath Park Primary School was opened in January 1895 by Cardiff County Borough Council as a Board School consisting of schools for Infants, Boys and Girls, with provision for more than 1,200 pupils. The Boys and Girls schools were amalgamated in 1951 as a Junior School and senior pupils were transferred to the Secondary Modern School on the same site. This closed in 1960. Two photographs of the school are printed in Roath, Splott and Adamsdown by Jeff Childs for the Roath Local History Society (The Archives Photograph Series 1995)

Scope and content

Log-books, admission registers and other records 1895-1988 of Roath Park Infants School, Boys School and Girls School, and Junior School (from 1980) predecessors of the Primary School
