Administrative/biographical history

The school was opened as George Inn Elementary School with infants and mixed departments in September 1879 by Gelligaer School Board but transferred to new buildings in November 1893 taking the name of Brithdir Elementary School with separate departments for the mixed school and infants school. The opening of a new school at Cwmsyfiog, co Monmouth, in 1896 reduced the pressure on the school from rising pupil numbers but in 1915 new premises were acquired and the boys and girls schools separated until 1954 when they were amalgamated as Brithdir Junior School, later Brithdir Primary School.
