Administrative/biographical history

Pontypridd District Highway Board was established under the South Wales Highways Act 1860 which provided for the establishment of Highway Districts under Highway Boards, exclusively for parish highways, acting under the supervision of the County Roads Board which had been set up in 1844 to take control of turnpike trusts. Each District possessed a surveyor appointed by the County Roads Board. Responsibility for main roads was transferred in 1889 under the Local Government Act 1888 to County Councils and County Boroughs. The Highway Districts were abolished under the Local Government Act 1894 and their powers were gradually passed to Rural Sanitary Districts. The Pontypridd District was based mainly upon the Pontypridd Poor Law Union.
