Administrative/biographical history

Caerphilly Urban District Council was formed in 1894 following the Local Government England and Wales Act. It took over the functions of Caerphilly Local Board of Health. The Council's area of responsibility was the parishes of Eglwysilan, Rudry/Rhydri, and Llanfabon.

The Urban District Council ceased to exist on 31 March 1974. The majority was merged with part of Gelligaer Urban District Council, Bedwas and Machen Urban District Council and Gelligaer Urban District Council to form Rhymney Valley District Council. A small part of Mynyddislwyn Urban District (co. Monmouth) was also added to the new district. A small area around Nantgarw was merged with Pontypridd Urban District Council, Llantrisant and Llantwit Fardre Rural District Council and parts of Cardiff and Cowbridge Rural District Councils to form Taff Ely District Council (1974-1996). Almost the whole of Rhymney Valley District Council was merged with Islwyn District Council (1974-1996) in co. Gwent to form the new unitary authority Caerphilly County Borough in 1996.
