CHILCOT AND WILLIAMS

A Post Office Directory of 1847 makes the first known reference to James William Chilcot being a staymaker in Surrey Street, Landport. In 1869 he entered into a partnership with Thomas Roger Williams and the firm became known as Chilcot & Williams, a name it retained throughout its subsequent history. T. R. Williams bought out Chilcot on his retirement in 1886 and the firm remained under Williams family control until it became a public company in 1938. For a while (1905-1913) Thomas Pettit Williams entered into a partnership with another corset maker Walter William Brown but when Brown became bankrupt in 1930, Williams bought him out. Williams also bought out the firm of E. C. Allen in 1942 after it had been bombed out of business.

From 1938 Chilcot & Williams had a close association with Kops Bros (Great Britain) Ltd and its subsidiary Scottish Knitwear and Fashions, for whom Chilcot & Williams made garments. After T. P. Williams' death in 1962, the firm was taken over by Berlei (UK) Ltd in 1965 and the factory in Surrey Street eventually closed in 1970.
