Note:

Both of the volumes appear to have been compiled by Sir John Philippart, although at least some of the letters in DD/26/1 were affixed at a later date. Some of the affixed material has had to be removed from both volumes and is filed separately, but the original references have been retained. The following reference system is used: each page within the volume is numbered, and items affixed to the page are sub-numbered. Thus, in DD/26/2, p.159 an entry made directly onto the page is recorded as DD/26/2/159, and a poster affixed to the same page as DD/26/2/159/1. Blank pages have been numbered but not entered in the list. For copies and extracts the dates given are those of the record.

ND [1853]

Letter

from William Morison

List of votes for each candidate is still being compiled; the 'St. Stephens people' have coalesced with [Thomas] Alley Jones, so that the writer does not expect those on his list who were not on Jones's to get in, and ought to be grateful if he himself has been thus excluded

Letter

from Lieutenant Colonel Harvey, Claremont

Thanks Sir John on behalf of the Duke of Kent for his letter and enclosures of 25 May, which the Duke only received on his recent return to England. to

Rev. F. Taunton

Has not spoken to 'Mr. Lee' about the church and almshouses. Told 'Mr. Bird' that the church was the more important as it was for the many. Tends to agree with 'Mr. Atwood' that any new church should become the parish church, the present one becoming a chapel of ease or district chapel

ND [1853]

Letter

from William Morison

Sends results which show that only four of his men got in, although it could have been six out of nine. The defeat is due partly to

Ref.	Date	Description
DD/26/1/ 13/1 (cont.)		obstinacy in not printing the charity account and partly to too much conciliation in the matter of the Waste Lands charity. Thanks Sir John for his nominations and support in parochial matters
13/2	5 Apr. 1853	Draft letter to [Thomas Alley Jones] Has nominated six candidates for Guardians and will vote for them; will also, as an independent, vote for [Jones]
14/1	14 Apr. 1853	Copy letter [William Morison], Hammersmith to unnamed noble correspondent The memorials made to His Lordship and to Colonel Wood were made on public grounds, although Sir John Philippart and 'Mr. Bird' will greatly appreciate the honour of being Justices of the Peace. Hopes that the favour may be accomplished through His Lordship but mentions other sources of influence which can be mobilised. Is anxious to assist the Conservative Party in any way, and feels that its present weakness in the magistracy is disadvantageous
14/2	15 Apr. 1853	Letter from William Morison Requests papers he left yesterday and Baker's Fulham Charities ; believes the Hammersmith Charities are progressing well. [W.D.] Salter has not yet finished adding up the votes for Guardians. Sends letters received from 'the Marquis' and Col. Wood, and a copy of his letter to them (see above)

Right of appropriation of pews is probably vested in the minister and churchwardens. 12 Dec. 1855

Letter

From John Webster Watson, Latymer Lodge
Feels that the distinction made in the vicar's preface between himself and William Bird is unjust. Describes his own status which makes him at least Bird's equal. This is not mere pride: having always kept a certain grade in society, he does not wish to lose it in Hamersmith. Thinks that Sir John's name should have been placed above that of [William] Morison as the latter is in trade. [Valentine] Stevens will not allow [John] Thompson's to stand above his own

[William] Smith did not know the dates, which were only obtained from [Alfred] Roberts late the previous day, between a heavy day at the board of Guardians and an evening at the board of surveyors. The accounts of Brown's blanket and Mrs. Clausy's charities were both audited 20 March last. [William] Morison will deliver

Letter

Correspondents as above

Returns some proofs with comments. Has not yet been able to study the churchwardens' account book on Maximilian Bard. [William] Smith sent the vestry minute book from 1732-1798, but the date in question is 1682. Agrees that a list of free schools in the parish, with particulars, could be added to the publication; there are also several philanthropic institutions. Regrets Sir John will be absent from next Friday's meeting. He will recommend the plainest and cheapest seal. Applicants for the post of clerk must be asked to provide security. A dust contractor must be advertised for. The London board elected 'Mr. Thwaites' a member of the court of sewers, as chairman. Encloses six tickets for bread and coals

and Fulham

ACCESSION NUMBER: 26

OCT 1975

SHORT TITLE: Records of Sir John Philippart, College House, Hammersmith

REFERENCE: DD/26/1

PROVENANCE: Donated by Messrs. Radcliffe and Co., solicitors, 10 Little College Street, Westminster, 14 January 1947

Note:

The material in this collection, which all seems to have belonged to Sir John Philippart, was accessioned by Hammersmith Reference Library in 1947 as SSR 6. Most of it was subsequently split up on a subject basis and placed in the Hammersmith Local History Collection, but the letter book and 'Parochial Register' (DD/26/1 and 2) were accessioned by the Archivist and later listed by the Archives Department of the London Borough of Hammersmith. In June 1974 it was decided that the whole of SSR 6 should be stored together at the Archives Department and so the Local Collection items were transferred and listed as part of DD/26. Several items listed in SSR 6 could not be found after exhaustive searching and have been noted at the end of the list.

Some of the affixed material in DD/26/1 and 2 has had to be removed and is filed separately, but the original references have been retained. For these volumes the following reference system is used: each page within the volume is numbered, and items affixed to the page sub-numbered. Thus in DD/26/2, p. 159, an entry made directly onto the page is recorded as DD/26/2/159, and a poster affixed to the same page as DD/26/2/159/1. Blank pages are numbered but not entered in the list.
