Letters written by David Lloyd George:

21. 1917 March 5

CIRCULAR LETTER: D. Lloyd George, 10 Downing Street, Whitehall, S.W., encouraging farmers to make extra efforts with the sowing of crops. The war has now reached a crisis and the 'heroism of our armies must be backed by the self-sacrifice and tireless labour of everyone at home'. Food production is of the utmost importance and the work of the next few weeks must decide the harvest of the year.

COVERING LETTER (20 May 1973): Jessie R. Richardson, 6 St. Fagans House, Sea View Court, Bradford Place, Penarth, Glam. to Mrs. Pierce enclosing letter as above. The letter was given to her to pass along to the Museum by Mrs. Vivian Petersen, 48 Woolford Rd., Wrentham, Massachusetts 02093, U.S.A. who found it among her family papers.

22. 1926 Nov. 17

LETTER: D. Lloyd George, 25 Old Queen St., Westminster, London S.W.1. to Major Fred C. Stern, re Harold Pearson and the attacks against Lloyd George and his friends in the Westminster Gazette despite Lloyd George's fulfilling the undertakings re Liberal Unity and his fund made to Pearson through Stern. Lloyd George has taken no retaliatory action against the reputations even of the 12 who tried to banish him from the Party. But 'unless they are prepared to play the game, it is far better that we should each of us go our own way and appeal to our own public ... this thing has got to stop.'

23/1-2 1931 Nov. 12

LETTERS: D. Lloyd George, House of Commons to Mr. and Mrs. William Evans, Craigle, Ty Gwyn Rd., Llandudno thanking them for the splendid work which they did on his behalf during the recent General Election, when illness prevented him from being among his friends. He will take the first opportunity of visiting the Boroughs and of expressing his thanks to all his supporters.

24. 1933 Nov.

LETTER: D. Lloyd George at his Office, Thames House, Millbank, London, S.W.1. to William Evans, thanking all his friends in the Caernarvon Boroughs, and Mr. Evans personally for their loyal and enthusiastic support in the recent election.

25-29.

115-125

Correspondence of Countess Lloyd George and Ann Parry:

115. 1945 April 3

LETTER: Margaret Matthews Williams, Amlwch to (Dowager) Countess Lloyd George, enclosing the snaps taken at Caernarvon as promised. She thanks her for receiving them on Friday in the midst of all her sorrow and especially for allowing them to see the 'lying-in-state' of their dear friend. They will never forget that room nor the wonderfully impressive funeral afterwards. She must feel proud to have had the love and devotion of so great a man, and after having the pleasure of meeting her, they can understand how fortunate and happy his last years must have been. Expresses sympathy with her in her loss.

116. 1946 April 9

LETTER: Louise B. Swann, Lisnagarvey, 116 Chesterfield Road, Bristol to Countess Lloyd George, enclosing a reproduction of a remembrance of Earl Lloyd George. She wonders whether his biographer would like to have for his temporary use the original as in this the notes are clearer. She lent it to the promoters of the Italian Peace Conference in Rome some years ago and recovered it with some difficulty by the aid of her old friend Felix Moscheles. The little marks on his notes were nerves. The notes were made in this house, but their party had to wait 2 hours in the caretaker's kitchen of the hall where the speech was made as their party had been smuggled down to evade the mob which gathered early. She is still busy with public works. Her husband who was a strong supporter of Lloyd George died many years ago.

POSTSCRIPT: Large numbers of the 'Birmingham Mob' came to Bristol for the occasion. 30000 were said to have surrounded the Hall.

117. 1946 Aug. 15

LETTER: Arthur L. Ralphes, Town Clerk, Borough of Conway, Town Clerk's Office, Bodlondeb, Conway to the Rt. Hon. Frances Countess Lloyd George of Dwyfor, Ty Newydd, Llanystumdwy, informing her that according to the Mayor of Conway, Alderman A. Ivor Parry, a key at the Lloyd George Museum is wrongly placed with the caskets. It is not the key to the Conway Casket as the caretaker stated, but that presented to Lloyd George when he opened the Civic Centre at Bodlondeb on 16 July 1937. He does not think that the key should be placed with the caskets but kept in another part of the Museum.

Attached:

COPY REPLY TO LETTER AS ABOVE (16 Aug. 1946): the caretaker was misinformed when he stated that the key was that to the Conway Casket. It was placed in that particular case with other presentations of the same kind, but will be moved if Alderman Ivor Parry would like this.

118. 1953 Jan. 5

LETTER: R. Boden, 12 The Rookery, High St., Madeley, nr. Wellington, Shrops. to the Dowager Countess Lloyd George, enclosing a photograph of his uncle William Thomas of Walsall, Staffs.. William Thomas was the police constable who lent his uniform to Lloyd George to escape from the Birmingham Town Hall during a hostile meeting at the time of the Boer War. The photograph depicts him at the time of his Golden Wedding.

119. 1958 Aug. 25

LETTER: Bob Boothby, The Hotel Portmeirion, Penrhyndeudraeth to Frances (Dowager Countess Lloyd George), stating that he went on a pilgrimage today and that he feels that he must tell her that he thinks Lloyd George's grave is, of its kind, the most beautiful thing he has ever seen. The nearest approach to it is Chaim Weizmann's in his garden at Rehovot (Rehovoth) and that is not so good.

120. 1960 May 23

LETTER: Hilda Huitt, Elmcroft, The Tilt, Cobham, Surrey to Miss Parry, (Curator, Lloyd George Museum, Llanystumdwy), sending a copy of the Morning Leader for 1908 containing an account of Lloyd George's Manchester Speech. They are hoping to come to Criccieth again this year. Rosemary is going to Oberammergau and Austria whilst Carolyn and Alison are at Camp with the guides. She was going to visit Miss Russell at Churt a few weeks ago but couldn't find the cottage. She has just seen the paragraph in the Telegraph about the Official Opening of the Museum on Saturday.

121. 1960 June 1

LETTER: Isidore Wartski, Derwen Deg, Bangor, to Miss (Ann) Parry, (Curator, Lloyd George Museum, Llanystumdwy), thanking her for the copy of the Winnipeg Testimonial. He remembers Lloyd George from the days he came to Bangor with a large yellow rosette to fight the fortress of the Caernarvon Boroughs, and was his friend ever since, helping him during his mayoralty. He and his wife were delighted to be present at the opening of the Memorial Museum and to meet the Dowager Lady Lloyd George again. He encloses some photographs which may be of interest to her. They were taken on the occasion of a garden party for Jewish University Students at his house 26 Aug. 1926, which was the occasion of Lloyd George's first public statement on his association with Weitzman, when he offered him a peerage.

122. 1960 June 17

LETTER: Isidore Wartski, Derwen Deg, Bangor to Miss (Ann) Parry, (Curator, Lloyd George Museum, Llanystumdwy), thanking her for her letter, and glad to hear that she found the photographs of interest. He is glad that Dr. William George is making a collection of 'David Lloyd Georgia' and asks whether he has among his records anything of special interest to Jews. Lloyd George's name appears quite frequently among the modern histories of the Middle East, Weitzman's 'Trial and Error', Prof. R. Williams's 'The State of Israel' and 'The Middle East Diary' by Colin Meinertzhagen. He saw Lloyd George frequently at Criccieth, several times in London and whenever he came to Bangor. He enjoyed an interesting day (at the opening of the Lloyd George Museum) and congratulates A. P. and Lady Lloyd George on the fruition of such an appropriate memorial.

123. 1960 Aug. 23 LETTER: William George, Garth Celyn, Criccieth, to Miss Ann Parry, Lloyd George Museum, Llanystumdwy enclosing a card pledging support to the Temperance Cause. (No. 25 above).
124. 1960 Sept. 19 LETTER: Isidore Wartski, Derwen Deg, Bangor, to Miss (Ann) Parry, (Curator, Lloyd George Museum, Llanystumdwy), asking for Lady Lloyd George's address which he has mislaid. His wife would like to send her some photographs of the opening of the Museum. He encloses a photograph of Mr. Lloyd George - as he was at the time - crossing from the Castle Hotel to see I.W. at his old shop.
125. 1963 May 1 LETTER: Iola ---, Clwyd and Deeside Hospital Management Committee, H.M. Stanley Hospital, St. Asaph to Ann (Parry, Curator, Lloyd George Museum, Llanystumdwy), Writes about a chest of drawers and dumb table, and also a brooch that she purchased from her. Family news. She took Frances and her friend Jane Gaskell back to Coed Coch otherwise known as Heron Water School. Ruth's son goes there to school. May come over to visit.

Correspondence re Freedoms of David Lloyd George:

126. 1946 Aug. 20 LETTER: Arthur L. Ralphes, Town Clerk, Town Clerk's Office, Bodlondeb, Conway to the Rt. Hon. Frances, Countess Lloyd George of Dwyfor, C. B. E., Ty Newydd, Llanystumdwy, thanking her for her letter of 16 inst.. He has found among the minutes the resolution passed by Conway Borough Council on 11 Aug. 1923 confirming the Honorary Freedom of the Borough on her late husband.

Attached:

COPY RESOLUTION passed at a meeting of Conway Borough Council, 11 Aug. 1923 conferring the Freedom of the Borough on the Rt. Hon. D. Lloyd George, O. M., M. P..

127. 1946 Sept. 9

COPIES OF LETTERS: (Countess Lloyd George of Dwyfor) to the Town Clerks of Barmouth, Barnsley, Birkenhead, Blackpool, Huddersfield, Inverness, Leeds, Newcastle-upon-Tyne, Salford, Sheffield and to the Clerks of the Port of London Authority and the Goldsmiths Company. She is placing on exhibition the Freedom Presentations conferred on her late husband. She would like to know whether the presentations in each case were made solely to her late husband or whether they were joint presentations to him and Dame Margaret Lloyd George.

128. 1946 Sept. 14

LETTER: Henry Bann, Town Clerk, Town Hall, Huddersfield to the Countess Lloyd George of Dwyfor, C. B. E., Ty Newydd, Llanystumdwy, in reply to her letter of 9th inst. Huddersfield did not have the honour of conferring the Freedom of the Borough on the late Earl Lloyd George and his name does not therefore appear on the Roll of Freemen. He would be glad to hear of any information which would suggest that some sort of presentation had been made and would then make further enquiries.

Attached:

LETTER IN REPLY TO ABOVE (23 Sept. 1946) apologising that there has been a mistake as regards Huddersfield in the list of freedoms held by her husband.

129. 1946 Sept. 17

COPIES OF LETTERS: (Countess Lloyd George of Dwyfor) to the Town Clerks of Barnsley, Birkenhead, Blackpool, Leeds, Newcastle-upon-Tyne, Salford, Sheffield, and the Secretary of the Port of London Authority and the Assistant Clerk of the Goldsmiths' Hall, London, thanking them for sending copies of the resolutions etc. conferring freedoms on her late husband. (Attached to the reply to Newcastle is a transcript of the Presentation, 29 Nov. 1918).

130. 1946 Sept. 23 COPY LETTER: (Countess Lloyd George of Dwyfor) to the Town Clerk, Inverness, thanking him for sending her particulars of the resolution conferring the freedom of the Burgh of Inverness on her late husband.
131. 1946 Oct. 7 LETTER: Clerk of the Barmouth Urban District Council to the Rt. Hon. Countess Lloyd George of Dwyfor, C. B. E., Ty Newydd, Llanystumdwy, informing her that the Presentation to Earl Lloyd George was made to him personally and that it was not a Joint Presentation.
132. 1946 Nov. 19 COPY LETTER (Countess Lloyd George of Dwyfor) to Herbert Oppenheimer, 20 Copthall Avenue, London Wall, E. C. . She omitted to mention in her letter of 18th that she has failed up to now to get possession of certain Freedom Presentations which belonged to her husband and which he bequeathed to her . Most of the missing Freedoms are, she believes, in the possession of Lady Megan, and Mr. Morris has all the particulars. She thinks that the handing over of these articles might be one of the conditions of any settlement which they make.
133. 1947 May 27 COPY LETTER: Arthur L. Ralphes, Town Clerk, Conway, to the Rt. Hon. Frances Countess Lloyd George of Dwyfor, Ty Newydd, Llanystumdwy, stating that he visited the Museum yesterday and noticed that the Conway Casket and Scrolls were not on exhibition. He wonders whether she was able to obtain possession of them following receipt of his letter of 15 Aug. 1946.

Attached:

COPY LETTER IN REPLY to above (9 June 1947): She has not yet been able to obtain possession of the Conway Caskets and Scrolls but is still hoping that they will be handed to her together with the other missing Freedoms. She is forwarding a copy of his letter to Lady Megan.

223. 1976 May 28 LETTER : R.J. Sylvester, C.B.E., J.P., Rudloe Cottage, Corsham, Wiltshire, to Mrs. I.M. Pierce, The L.G. Museum, Llanystumdwy, Llanstumdwy [sic], nr. Criccieth. He informs her that he had been to Bath that day for the first time since his return home from North Wales. He had been to the Wessex Bookshop which stocked his book and obtained a copy which he sends to her for the museum, as promised. He asks for a receipt. He hopes that she will read it and will let him know her reactions to the book. He had received a letter from Miss Ann Parry who quotes from a letter she had received from Erica Lea saying 'an interesting article in BOOKS AND BOOKMEN in this month says that Mr. Sylvester's book is the best yet and that Frank Owen's is mainly a eulogy.' He was pleased to have met her again, as were his daughter Maureen and son in law Alun. They all hoped that the museum would have a more successful year. He thanks her for her hospitality.
