

- /158 Old cottage on Rhiw Mountain.
- /159 Sarn Church.
- /160 Morfa Nefyn Beach.
- /161 Llangian Church.
- /162 Old National School at Llanengan.
- /163 The home of Cybi at Llangybi.
- /164 Old Baptist chapel at Anelog, Aberdaron.
- /165 Penllech Church.
- /166 Old stone at Sarn Church.
- /167 Aberdaron new church.
- /168 Botwnnog Church.
- /169 Coal schooner at Nefyn.
- /170 St. David's Church, Nefyn.

- /1 Lord Baden Powell inspecting Boy Scouts at Pwllheli in 1915.
- /2 Building the new church at Nefyn in 1904.
- /3 Building the new church at Nefyn in 1904.
- /4 The Rev. O. Lloyd Williams of Bodfuan, Hon. Secretary of the Porthdinllaen Lifeboat and member of the crew of the George Moore.
- /5 The visit of Braid & Taylor to the Nefyn Golf Club in 1920.
- /6 The Nefyn Friendly Society taken on the Groes in January 1873.
- /7 Laying the foundation stone of the Madryn Hall in 1898.
- /8 A group of old fishermen at Nefyn taken in the nineteenth century.
- /9 Pencei, Porthdinllaen, with the remains of the old blacksmith shop.
- /10 The Nefyn troop of Boy Scouts taken at Cliff Castle in 1915.

X/CHS.1279/11/11

The Nefyn football team in 1909.

/12 The Nefyn troop of Boy Scouts taken at Cliff Castle in 1915.

/13 The Nefyn football team in 1904.

/14 The visit of Braid & Taylor to the Nefyn golf club in 1920.

/15 Coach belonging to the Mostyn Arms Hotel, Pwllheli, with a load of trippers.

/16 The Cambrian Railway motor bus which was the first motor bus to run to Nefyn.

/17 Brake belonging to John Jones of the Ship Edern.

/18 Brake outside the old Nanhoron Arms towards the end of the nineteenth century.

/19 Tanyrallt Tavern, Porthdinllaen.

/20 Ty Mawr, Well Street, taken in the nineteenth century.

/21 Pen Glorian, Well Street, where the fire station is today.

Owen Jones, Ty Coch, Porthdinllaen, coxswain of the lifeboat M.O.Y.E..

- /23 The Porthdinllaen lifeboat
M.O.Y.E. taking part in a film.
- /24 The crew of the barge Ellendale rescued by the Porthdinllaen lifeboat in September, 1954.
- /25 Porthdinllaen lifeboat M.O.Y.E..
- /26 The first crew of the Porthdinllaen life saving crew taken in the nineteenth century.
- /27 The trawler M.F.V.1122 towed in to Porthdinllaen by the lifeboat in April, 1957.
- /28 The Porthdinllaen lifeboat
towing the M.F.V.1122 and a yacht to Porthdinllaen.
- /29 Porthdinllaen lifeboat
Charles Henry Ashley.
- /30 Wrecked seaplane at Bwlch,
Morfa Nefyn.
- /31 Wrecked seaplane at Porthdinllaen.
- /32 Wreck of the barque Stewart off Porthcolmon in 1902.

Wrecked seaplane at Porthdinllaen.

/34

The old customs house at Bwlch.

/35

The lifeboat look out hut at Porthdinllaen.

/36

Tavern Newydd, Bwlch, with the old lime kiln and the Porthdinllaen carrier.

/37

A thatched cottage at Mynydd Nefyn.

/38

Well Street, Nefyn in the nineteenth century with carts carrying stone from the quarry.

/39

The first golf club house at Morfa Nefyn.

/40

Old lime kiln at Bwlch, Morfa
Nefyn.

/41

Tai Folt, Mynydd Nefyn.

/42

The Groes, Nefyn, with Cross
Keys on the left and Nanhoron
Arms on the right.

/43

Tanygrisiau, Groes, Nefyn, where Barclays Bank stands today.

Mrs. Jones of Ty Coch, harbour master at Porthdinllaen and school mistress.

/45

William Jones, conductor of the Cambrian Railway buses.

/46

William Roberts, shopkeeper, Shop y Maes, Nefyn.

/47

Robert Thomas, Derwen, Nefyn, Shipbuilder.

/48

The Rev. James Jarett and the deacons of Capel Isaf.

/49

William Jones of Penpalment coach ready to start for Pwllheli.

/50

The steamer Matje ashore at Porthdinllaen.

/51

John Hughes, Groes, coxswain, Porthdinllaen lifeboat George Moore.

/52

Porthdinllaen lifeboat Barbra Fleming.

/53

The coastguard station at Morfa Nefyn.

/54

A fishing boat with a load of herrings at Nefyn taken early in the twentieth century.

- Old fishermen on the beach at Nefyn with the old blacksmith on the left.
- /56 Smack Brothers built at Porthdinllaen in 1840.
- /57 The Groes at the end of the nineteenth century.
- /58 Circus procession in Palace Street early in the twentieth century.
- /59 The Castle Inn, Morfa Nefyn.
- /60 Thatched cottages at Tailon, Edern.
- /61 The Golf Club house which replaced the previous one burnt in 1911.
- /62 A thatched cottage at Mynydd Nefyn.
- /63 Old view of High Street with the town hall on the right.
- /64 Shop y Groes and Cross Keys both of which have been demolished.
- /65 Old Nefyn Post Office with J. Ellis Jones the postmaster.
- /66 The Metropolitan Bank, Nefyn.

- Edern village early in the twentieth century.
- /68 A travelling cinema at Pwllheli 50 years ago.
- /69 An old lime kiln at Wern.
- /70 Circus procession at Tanygraig.
- /71 The old smithy at Church Street, Nefyn.
- /72 The Vron taken late in the nineteenth century.
- /73 The Nefyn bank taken early in the twentieth century.
- /74 Cross Keys which was once an inn and later a shoe-makers' shop.
- /75 Donkey and cart on the Groes.
- /76 Old cottages at Edern, one of which used to be the Cefn Amwlch Arms.
- /77 Ty Coch Inn and Ty Gwyn Inn at Porthdinllaen.
- /78 Building new houses at Palace Street on old stables of Plas in 1909.

- /80 One of the earliest taxis at Nefyn belonging to Evan Jones, Penpalment.
- /81 A group of old fishermen on the beach.
- /82 One of the early buses owned by the Nefyn Blues.
- /83 Policeman Davies of Morfa Nefyn in a horse and trap.
- /84 The Nefyn water works just after it was completed in 1907.
- /85 Tanymaes, Nefyn, taken early in the twentieth century.
- /86 Group at Nefyn golf club taken early in the 1920s when the qualifying round of the Welsh professionals took place.
- /87 The Welsh professionals qualifying round at Nefyn in the early 1920s.
- /88 The old parish church at Nefyn./
- /89 Coronation decorations at Nefyn in 1937.
- /90 St. Mary's Church, Nefyn.

Rev. Owen Pritchard, minister at Capel Isaf.

- /92 Builders building new houses at Palace Street in 1908.
- /93 The flat Fume at Porthdinllaen.
- /94 Passengers aboard the Bardsey
Tender in 1936.
- /95 The St. Mary's Well and the old Nanhoron Arms Hotel on the right.
- /96 People coming from the Nefyn show early in the twentieth century.
- /97 The schooner Angler owned at Nefyn.
- /98 The schooner Miss Beck built
at Porthdinllaen in 1857.
- /99 Barque Saigon owned at Nefyn.
- /100 The Barque Robert Jones built
at Porthdinllaen in 1866.
- /101 The schooner Maria Jane built
at Porthdinllaen in 1857.
- /102 The schooner Ann owned at Nefyn in the nineteenth century.

The barque Captain Dan owned at Morfa Nefyn.

/104

The schooner Revival built at Porthdinllaen in 1859.

/105

Funeral procession of M. Jones, Penpalment, who was killed at sea in 1922.

/106

The Tocia bus and the old Nefyn Omnibus Co. bus at Pwllheli.

/107

Funeral procession of M. Jones, Penpalment, who was killed at sea in 1922.

/108

Sailors leaving by coach to catch the mail at Pwllheli on Sunday.

/109

The first bus to run to Nefyn belonging to the Cambrian Railway.

/110

Nefyn band in the procession on the opening day of the waterworks in 1906.

/111

Buses belonging to the Nefyn Omnibus Co. and the Tocia Co. at Pwllheli.

/112

School children marching in the procession.

- Porthdinllaen with the remains of the old Hen Plas which used to be the summer residence of the Cefn Amwlch family.
- /114 A barrel organ at Nefyn early in the twentieth century.
- /115 Palace Street as it was early in the twentieth century.
- /116 Edern village early in the twentieth century.
- /117 Ty Sian at Abergeirch, Edern.
- /118 Cefn Amwlch Arms Inn at Edern.
- /119 Whitehall Inn, Porthdinllaen.
- /120 The old club house at the golf links.
- /121 Nefyn football team in 1926.
- /122 Old fishing huts at Nefyn beach.
- /123 Fire brigade display at Nefyn on the opening day of the waterworks.
- /124 Wrecked seaplane on the beach at Morfa Nefyn in the early thirties.

Miss Ellis and Miss Parry of the infants school at Nefyn early in the twentieth century.

/126

Lloyd George visiting the Nefyn agriculture show.

/127

The regatta at Nefyn in the early 1920s.

/128

The yard at Porthdinllaen with the old sail loft on the left.

/129

Mr. Love Jones Parry of Madryn, M.P. for the Caernarvon Boroughs.

/130

John Wilson, Post Master at Nefyn in the nineteenth century.

/131

W.R. Davies and his tailors at Shop y Maes, Nefyn.

/132

Owen Williams, Headmaster at Nefyn School.

/133

Mrs. Williams, headmistress of Nefyn girls' school.

/134

A catch of herrings at Nefyn.

/135

The regatta at Nefyn in 1922.

/136

Mending herring nets at Nefyn.

The schooner Mary Goldsworthy discharging coal on Nefyn beach.

/138

Tanydderwen, one of the old insurance offices.

/139

The smack Tryfan at Henborth, Porthdinllaen.

/140

Porthdinllaen lifeboat George Moore.

/141

William Hughes, coxswain of the lifeboat M.O.Y.E..

/142

Henborth, Porthdinllaen as it is today.

/143

Shipbuilding at Nefyn beach in 1880.

/144

The old pier at Wern.

/145

E.T. Roberts, Headmaster Edern School.

/146

The Hen Dafarn and the old blacksmith shop as they are today.

/147

The first members of the St. Tudwall's Lodge of Freemasons at Pwllheli.

/148

Donkey and cart belonging to a farm at Sarn.

X/CHS.1279/11/149

General view of Pwllheli late in the nineteenth century.

/150

Salem Chapel, Pwllheli on fire, 1913.

/151

The trial of the man who set the chapel on fire at Pwllheli Town Hall.

/152

The prisoner at Afonwen station being taken to Caernarvon Jail.

X/CHS.1279/12/1-127

Photograph Album:

/1

Nefyn football team in 1909.
R. Jones, H. Jones Hughes,
D. Hughes, W. Jones, R. Thomas,
Robert Jones, R. Wilson,
G. Cooke, John Ellis, W. Jones,
R. Griffith.

/2

Nefyn boys football team
(the Nefyn Swifts), 1909-10.

/3

Group of Nefyn sailors home on leave.

/4

The banquet after the consecration of the Madryn Lodge at Pwllheli.

/5

The old jail at Pwllheli.

/6

The old town hall at Pwllheli.

- Sportsman Hotel, Nefyn.
- /8 The old Ceg Inn at Abererch.
- /9 The old Gwindy Inn at Abererch.
- /10 The old Tyddyn Uchaf Inn, Abererch.
- /11 The old Tyddyn Countess Inn at Abererch.
- /12 The old Bull Inn at Abererch.
- /13 The old Penyboncyn Inn at Rhiw.
- /14 The old Madryn Arms Hotel, Pwllheli.
- /15 The old Grammar School at Botwnnog.
- /16 The Pwllheli Sea Cadet Corps marching in a Parade at Bangor.
- /17 The old brickworks and pier at Morfa Nefyn.
- /18 Nefyn Home Guard marching in the War Weapons parade at Pwllheli.
- /19 Rose Queen procession at Nefyn.

- Remains of an old windmill at Llanengan.
- /21 Nefyn Branch of the British Legion at Nanhoron in 1932.
- /22 Old Baptist Chapel, Pwllheli which was built in 1815.
- /23 The old Baptist Chapel at Pwllheli.
- /24 Aberdaron Church.
- /25 Llanarmon Church.
- /26 Abererch Church.
- /27 The interior of Llanengan Church.
- /28 St. Mary's Well, Nefyn.
- /29 Llanbedrog Church.
- /30 St. Mary's Church, Nefyn.
- /31 Rhent, Tydweiliog, which used to be a tithebarn at one time.
- /32 Children's day at the Nefyn
Golf Club in 1927.
- /33 The stables at Gelliwig.
- /34 Gelliwig, Botwnnog.

- Old sail loft at Pwllheli.
- /36 Gelliwig, Botwnnog.
- /37 The old workhouse at Pwllheli.
- /38 Bardsey Island Lighthouse.
- /39 Hugh Parry, headmaster of Bryncroes School.
- /40 Teachers at Pwllheli Modern Secondary School.
- /41 Haymaking at a Llannor farm.
- /42 The old village pump at Pentreuchaf.
- /43 The cromlech at Cefnamwlch.
- /44 Love Jones Parry, Esq. of Madryn Castle.
- /45 The old smithy at Pont y Gof, Botwnnog.
- /46 Nefyn Home Guards in camp at Madryn in 1941.
- /47 Schooner Solway Lass at Pwllheli Harbour.

A group of fishermen at Nefyn.

- /49 Nefyn Home Guards taken at Madryn in 1941.
- /50 Local doctors at an A.R.P. course at Pwllheli in 1939.
- /51 Dai Rees playing golf at Nefyn in 1950.
- /52 T. Moore, coxswain of the Porthdinllaen lifeboat.
- /53 Rhiw Church.
- /54 Opening the headquarters of the Pwllheli Sea Cadet Corps.
- /55 Schooner Merkur discharging timber at Pwllheli.
- /56 Schooner Cluttia discharging timber at Pwllheli.
- /57 Pwllheli Sea Cadet Corps.
- /58 The South Beach Hotel on fire.
- /59 The old Grammar School at Botwnnog.
- /60 The South Beach Hotel on fire.
- /61 Officers of the 4th Battalion Caernarvonshire Home Guard at Pwllheli Drill Hall.

Old Nefyn Omnibus Co. bus after
The first Glynog and Trevor bus. being taken over by G.W.R.

- /63 The regatta at Aberdaron in
the early twenties.
- /64 The regatta at Aberdaron in
the early twenties.
- /65 The old Pwllheli to Llanbedrog tram.
- /66 Crew of the Porthdinllaen lifeboat Charles Henry Ashley.
- /67 French onion seller who used to visit Nefyn before the war.
- /68 The old Fourcrosses Inn.
- /69 The old Farmers Arms at Efailnewydd.
- /70 The old Crown Inn at Rhydyclafdy.
- /71 Dr. D. Williams who was in practice at Nefyn early in the twentieth century.
- /72 The old Botwnnog Grammar School as it was when it was rebuilt in 1898.
- /73 The old congregational chapel at Hebron which was built in 1867.

- The old tramway station at Llanbedrog.
- /75 The West End, Pwllheli, with the old tramway lines.
- /76 The original Grammar School at Botwnnog.
- /77 The Tynewydd Inn, Sarn.
- /78 Morfa Nefyn school children in the early thirties.
- /79 A turtle caught at Pwllheli in 1908.
- /80 Group taken at the Nefyn Golf Club.
- /81 The farm yard at Ty Cerrig, Nefyn about 40 years ago.
- /82 A group at the Golf Club at Nefyn after it was reopened in 1919.
- /83 The old Porthdinllaen lifeboat George Moore.
- /84 The old smithy at Bodfuan.
- /85 Bwlich, Abersoch 50 years ago.
- /86 Pwllheli lifeboat William Macpherson.

X/CHS.1279/12/87

The old Cliff Tavern, Nefyn.

- /88 Nefyn after a snow storm.
- /89 Tom Parry and J. Walker, farm-hands at Ty Cerrig, Nefyn.
- /90 Nefyn after a snow storm.
- /91 N.C.O.s of the 4th Battalion of the Caernarvonshire Home Guard.
- /92 The drums after the presentation ceremony.
- /93 Mr. and Mrs. Lord of Cliff Castle at a tea party there in 1915.
- /94 The committee of the Nefyn Scouts at Cliff Castle at the presentation of colours to the troop in 1915.
- /95 The old club house at the Nefyn golf links.
- /96 Jack Jones the old golf pro. at Nefyn.
- /97 Nefyn after a snow storm.
- /98 One of the earliest taxis owned at Pwllheli.

Capt. O. Davies as a coast watcher at Porthdinllaen
in 1914.

- /100 Mrs. Evans and Mrs. Hughes, licensee of Bryncynan Inn.
- /101 Hay making at Nefyn 50 years
ago.
- /102 A group of Nefyn school children at the Garn about 50 years ago.
- /103 J. Jarrett Parry, Scoutmaster of the Nefyn Scouts.
- /104 The old Whitehall Inn,
Porthdinllaen.
- /105 The first agricultural show
at Nefyn.
- /106 Nefyn street decorated for the coronation.
- /107 School children going to a tea party on the King's Jubilee Day.
- /108 The first agricultural show
at Nefyn.
- /109 The North Wales Advertising
Board at Nefyn in 1928.

The Rev. Owen Fritchard and the deacons of Capel Isaf, Nefyn.

- /111 The Rev. Parry Hughes, Methodist Minister at Morfa Nefyn.
- /112 Ruins of the old stables at Plas, Nefyn.
- /113 The old Baptist Chapel at Nefyn which was built in 1851 and has now been demolished.
- /114 Capt. Watkin Williams, Pwllpark, Shipowner.
- /115 Owen Roberts, Tairlon, Nefyn, deacon at the C.M. Chapel.
- /116 Station Square, Pwllheli before the station was built.
- /117 The return of Colonel Jones after service in India, taken over 70 years ago.
- /118 Mrs. Love Jones Parry of Madryn going to lay foundation stone at the Madryn Hall in 1898.
- /119 Capt. Evan Davies, Cartref, master of the R.M.S. Baltic.

Lieut. Evan Williams,
Tycannol who was lost on
H.M.S. Hampshire in 1916.

- /121 Capt. Williams, Primrose
 Villa, who was lost at sea during the last war.
- /122 Capt. Evan Jones, Nefyn.
- /123 Capt. Richard Davies, Nefyn.
- /124 Capt. Tom Hughes, Nefyn.
- /125 Capt. Henry Parry, Nefyn.
- /126 Capt. Griffith Jones, Morfa
 Nefyn.
- /127 Capt. G. Griffith, Efailnewydd.

Photograph Album:

- /1 Capt. Robert Roberts of Nefyn and the crew of the Barque Overdale.
- /2 Tairlon, Nefyn, taken over 60 years ago.
- /3 A group of old pensioners at Salem Chapel, Pwllheli.
- /4 Converted van that was used as transport at Pwllheli early in the twenties.
- /5 John, Tirgwenith, Tydweiliog, and his lorry.
- /6 The Tocia coach outside the London Temperance.
- /7 Tom Jones the first driver of the Cambrian Railway Buses.
- /8 The old Abersoch Lifeboat Oldham. (for ref. see X/1279/34)
- /9 Well Street, Nefyn, with the old Nanhoron Arms Hotel.
- /10 The old Abersoch Lifeboat Oldham.
- /11 Old coal carriers on the beach at Aberdaron.

- Llanengan Church.
- /13 The old national school at Llanbedrog.
- /14 The Ship Inn, Tydweiliog.
- /15 Group taken at Cae Coch about 40 years ago.
- /16 Group taken at the Porthdinllaen Lifeboat House during the ceremony of the christening of the M.O.Y.E.
- /17 Nefyn boys football team in 1909.
- /18 Capt. David Pritchard, Pwllheli.
- /19 Cable steamer Farraday laying a cable to Ireland at Abergeirch in 1938.
- /20 Well Street, Nefyn.
- /21 The new golf club house at Nefyn which was built in 1930.
- /22 Pte. Evan Ellis, Nefyn, 1914-1918.
- /23 A Sunday School trip from Nefyn at Madryn about 60 years ago.

Capt. Hugh Jones and Robert Davies of Nefyn.

/25

Old N.P. Bank, Nefyn.

/26

Aberdaron Church.

/27

Richard Roberts and William
Jones, fishermen at Nefyn.

/28

Group taken at the Porthdinllaen Lifeboat
House during the christening ceremony of the new lifeboat
M.O.Y.E.

/29

Aberdaron village.

/30

One of the earliest cars
at Nefyn belonging to Capt.
Williams, Murydon.

/31

Brynia, Edern.

/32

Capt. O.G. Owen, Derlwyn,
Morfa Nefyn.

/33

Mr. Jenkins, Headmaster, and the boys of Edern School taken in 1881.

/34

Nefyn after a snow fall in the late twenties.

/35

South Beach, Pwllheli.

Opening of the new station
at Pwllheli.

/37

Official opening of the bowling green at South
Beach, Pwllheli.

/38

Love Jones Parry, Esq.,
Madryn Castle.

/39

Pwllheli before the inner harbour was built.

/40

Opening of the new school at Fourcrosses.

/41

S.S. Briton at Porthdinllaen.

/42

Llandegwning Church.

/43

Opening of the new station
at Pwllheli.

/44

Official opening of the bowling green at South
Beach, Pwllheli.

/45

Henry Thomas and W.G. Thomas of Nefyn, both lost in the 1914-18 war.

/46

Llandegwning Church.

/47

Opening of the new station
at Pwllheli.

/48

Madryn Castle.

T.D. Davies, Isfryn, Nefyn, killed in 1942.

/50

Coal schooner at Nefyn.

/51

The annual dinner of the Porthdinllaen Lifeboat crew.

/52

Coal schooner at Nefyn.

/53

Nefyn Beach over 50 years ago.

/54

A Sunday School picnic at Wergloedd, Nefyn.

/55

The old Baptist Chapel at Nefyn.

/56

Robert Hughes, Nefyn, Greengrocer.

/57

Private Evan Ellis, Well
Street, Nefyn.

/58

Groes, Nefyn, where Barclays
Bank is today.

/59

Well Street, Nefyn.

/60

The new Baptist Chapel at Nefyn.

/61

Old fishermen at Nefyn nearly 100 years ago.

/62

The new club house at Nefyn
Golf Club, built in 1930.

Edern village towards the end of the nineteenth century.

- /64 Porthdinllaen lifeboat towing the Dutch ship Lenie off the beach at Tydweiliog.
- /65 Capt. ^{William} and Mrs. ^{Mary} Meredith of Nefyn (she was ~~his~~ married to Hugh Jones before Capt. Meredith and Mr. Williams Aberffraw after Capt. Meredith was drowned.)
- /66 The old coal yard at Well Street, Nefyn.
- /67 The crew of the Porthdinllaen lifeboat Barbara Fleming 60 years ago.
- /68 A Sunday School Class at Capel Isaf, Nefyn, taken about 1910.
- /69 Group of helpers at a tea party at Capel Isaf about 1910.
- /70 Ann Hughes, Groes, Nefyn.
- /71 The centenary of the Porthdinllaen Lifeboat, 1964.
- /72 The Groes, Nefyn, about 1921.
- /73 John Ellis, Postmaster, Nefyn.

- /75 Portmadoc Harbour in the nineteenth century.
- /76 The first lifesaving crew at Porthdinllaen taken in the nineteenth century.
- /77 Richard Jones mending fishing nets at Nefyn.
- /78 Group off for a day trip on a brake towards the end of the nineteenth century.
- /79 Sunday School party at Capel Isaf taken about 1910.
- /80 Sunday school children at Capel Isaf in the early thirties.
- /81 John Ellis, Postmaster, Nefyn.
- /82 Robert John Davies, Nefyn, killed in the 1939-45 war.
- /83 Well Street, Nefyn.
- /84 High Street, Nefyn, with the old Town Hall on the right.
- /85 The first clubhouse of the Nefyn Golf Club, destroyed by fire in 1911.

X/CHS.1279/13/86

Building the new St. David's Church at Nefyn in 1904.

/87

One of the first Nefyn Agriculture Shows taken early in the twentieth century.

/88

One of the first Nefyn Agriculture Shows taken early in the twentieth century.

/89

A thatched cottage at Mynydd Nefyn.

/90

Danish schooner Cluttia at Pwllheli.

X/CHS.1279/14

A group of pupils who had never been absent at Nevin Council School, 1904-05.

X/CHS.1279/15

Henry Parry.

X/CHS.1279/16

Pwllheli Lifeboat Margaret Platt of Stalybridge.

X/CHS.1279/17

Porthdinllaen lifeboat, early nineteenth century.

X/CHS.1279/18

The German motor vessel Rethi Moller aground at Penmaenmawr on November
5th, 1967. The Beaumaris lifeboat stood by her until she was out of danger.

X/CHS.1279/19

Wreck of the steamship
Royal Charter off Moelfre,
Anglesey on October 25th, 1859.

X/CHS.1279/20

The sailing ship Maria Jane -
Master, Morris Jones.

X/CHS.1279/21

Schooner Angler.

X/CHS.1279/22

Rhyl Lifeboat.

X/CHS.1279/23

Memorial stone to five members of Rhoscolyn lifeboat crew, lost in the attempt to save crew of the Timbo in 1920. (negative).

/24 The schooner Padstow wrecked off Cemlyn. (negative).

/25 Launching the Llandudno lifeboat Theodore Price, early twentieth century. (2 negatives).

/26 Moelfre lifeboat No.3. (negative).

/27 Porthdinllaen lifeboat George Moore 2nd, 1888-1902. (negative).

/28 Pwllheli lifeboat William Macpherson, 1931-40. (negative).

/29 Rhosneigr lifeboat Thomas Lingham 4th. (negative).

/30 Rhosneigr lifeboat crew. (2 negatives).

X/CHS.1279/31

Rhyl lifeboat Caroline
Richardson 2nd, 1897-1939.
(2 negatives).

/32 Launching the Rhyl lifeboat.
(negative).

/33 Rhyl lifeboat and crew.
(negative).

/34 The old Abersoch lifeboat.
(negative). See print see XCHS.1279/12/8

/35 Cemlyn lifeboat Ann Collin,
1904-13.
(negative).

/36 Lifeboat: Jane Martin.
(negative).

/37 Lifeboats: Unidentified
negatives (4).

/38 The lifeboat Oldham on her carriage ready for launching:
a photograph taken soon after her arrival at Abersoch in 1892. (negative).