Memorandum (made by Michael Woodward, rector of Ash) of the protest of the Parishioners of Ash, on Friday, 5 September 1656, against "an Encroachment by the Inhabitants of Weeke" in the parish of Wynston. The Parishioners of Ash met the inhabitants of Weeke at a place called "Mit-st Corner", the usually reputed boundary of Ash, Frinsley and Claygate, and when the Inhabitants of Weeke (who were purporting to perambulate their boundaries) came within the boundaries of Ash, Woodward rode up to them and protested on behalf of the College as Lords of the Manor of Ash; and at his request the Parishioners of Ash, then present there, stopped up the crosses dug by the inhabitants of Weeke within the Liberties of Ash. English. Paper.

Signed by about 17 Parishioners, with statement of places encroached upon.

Letter, dated Cheokent 27 February 1845, from R[obert] Dickinson: he has not yet received the lease for his signature from Messrs.
Trimmer. He is relying on Mr. Richard Knight of Chanton for the settlement with Jos^h Parwell. The counterpart of the last lease of Ash Estate called Fannus & Lowways is in the possession of John Clear, one of the Trustees of Headley School. No address.
